“ *Mrs. Cimorelli and family,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this very hard time.
Over the past 12 years being your neighbor, I so enjoyed watching Mr. Cimorelli whether it be mowing the lawn, working outside our just walking. He was a wonderful man and he is surly going to be missed. If you need anything at all just come over. God bless you all and always remember the wonderful times you all had with him.*

“ Celeste, John and Family, My heart goes out to you and your family. Please accept my deepest sympathy. I lost my Dad last year to cancer and I know how painful it can be. You are not alone. Remember the special times and he will always with you in spirit.
