“ Jim Buono

Your father was a good man and neighbor. He could fix anything with a motor and never complained when we would show up with a mower . I was lucky to have gone to a couple of wrestling events with him. I even enjoyed the Sunday morning rides to church while Charlie Pride sang Kiss an Angel good morning on the eight track. Your mother and father were always good to us. I'm so sorry that they both suffered. Now they are at peace and we have so many good memories.

It was good growing up nextdoor to your family with kickball games, biking and swimming. Take care and know that you are thought of and prayed for in these hard times.

“ I have known Sonny for the last 25 years. Always had a smile on his face and a joke to tell. I've known Sonny through his daughter Laurie. We have been close friends for the past 30 years. This family always made me feel more than welcome in their home. Sonny you will be missed. With love, Cheryl Hughes
