“ " I would have like to have know him better." Mrs. Camille Blanco.. And my comment from me Ron Blanco I was alway amazed by what it took to build a house and take it down I watched him. I was glad I spend a moment with him 2 weeks ago as we went thru his sudden condition. He said something in the line of appreciation that I came and visited him. Our deepest sympathy to the family, May you rest in peace Moshos

Years ago our teenagers brought us together and a friendship was born.....a friends are friends forever type of friendship. And now, dear Aris, "God saw you getting tired, a cure not meant to be. So He gently closed your loving eyes and whispered 'come with Me' ". May your beautiful boys be blessed with strength and courage as you leave us. Your beloved Ruthie awaits. So until we meet again....rest in peace, dear friend.

To Aristotle's family, please accept my condolences. No matter where I was he ALWAYS made it a point to stop and chat with me. He truly enjoyed talking about his plans to build another house. His energy seemed limitless. RIP Ari!!!!
