“ I would like to express my sincere sympathy to the family. I didn't know Bruce well personally but felt I knew him through the eyes of his daughter, Wendy. He was a loving man, hard working and dependable and was always there to help if he could. I know he will be missed so much by all of you and I hope you find comfort in knowing he no longer suffers and has left you with beautiful memories. Love, Kateri Engelin

*Having known Wendy as a dear friend who I met in Florida in the 1970's, I was fortunate enough to travel north to visit many times in the summers. Whenever I was there I was treated like family, and was included in many memorable family events as well. So I got to know Bruce as a man with a great sense of humor, and a quick laugh. I have faith that while he will be sorely missed, knowing he no longer suffers will be a great consolation to everyone. With loving sympathy, Nancy

*Unfortunately I did not know Bruce personally, but I feel I have known the best of him through his daughter Wendy who is a loving, devoted, loyal friend with a great sense of humor, joy for life, sense of adventure and sheer determination to never give up. Certainly these are things she learned from a special Dad and loving family. The heartache you must bear is hard, but it is a worthy price to pay for a lifetime of wonderful memories. May your reward be a treasure of joy for all the intangible values you learned and shared together, and your memories a source of great consolation to each of you. With sympathy and love,
