

Bruno Pellegri

May 24, 1925 - February 25, 2018

Saugerties – Bruno Pellegri died Sunday February 25, 2018 at TenBroeck Commons in Lake Katrine. He was 92 years old.

Born May 24, 1925 in Parma, Italy, he was the son of Orazio and Melania Bacchieri Pellegri. On March 1, 1949 he married the former Teresa Canuti and they would have celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary Thursday.

A hard working man all of his life, he served in the Italian Army during WWII and worked as a lumberjack in France before emigrating to the United States in 1967. He was a member of the Excavators Union Local 731 and worked on many construction jobs around New York City.

Spending time outdoors and enjoying nature was a passion of his. He was known to forage for mushrooms and tend to his garden for leisure. Creative by nature, he enjoyed woodworking and working with his hands.

Bruno was very proud of the quality life he built in the New World and particularly his children and grandchildren and their various achievements. He enjoyed spending quality time with his family.

Survivors include his wife, Teresa at home; four children, Gianfranco Pellegri and his wife Maria Teresa, Gina Maestri and her husband Celeste, Bruna Biolzi and her husband Marco, and John Pellegrini and his wife Angela; eleven grandchildren; and eleven great grandchildren. He was pre-deceased by ten siblings.

He was a humble yet impactful man; a husband, father and nonno that will be tremendously missed by all those who were lucky enough to have known him.

A Funeral procession will form 9:15 AM Thursday, March 1, 2018 at Buono Funeral Service, Inc., Saugerties, NY and then proceed to St. John the Evangelist Parish Center in Centerville, where a 10:00 AM a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. “ Zio was a big hearted man whose warmth and acceptance always made me feel a welcome part of the family even though we never could understand each other's English or French. I had a lot of respect for him and always enjoyed seeing his vegetable garden. I still have and treasure the walking sticks he carved for Harry and me. My heart goes out to you, Zia! I pray God will comfort you and your family as only He can.

With much love, Bonnie

“ Our hearts and sympathy go out to the entire Pellegri family on this sad occasion.

Zio was a gentle man whose sparkling eyes and loving smile were always warm and welcoming. Though language was a barrier at times, we always enjoyed his stories. He was hardworking, unselfish and sharing, and very proud of his family.

We will miss him very much but are consoled that he is blessed and at rest.

Wishing you all love and strength at this time, especially to our Zia Teresa.

“ My sincerest sympathy Teresa and all the families. Though distance has separated us for many years, the happy memories of many get togethers will always have a place in my heart. Remembering the day the Pellegri family walked into 1667 E. 172nd St., Bronx, NY so many years ago. I still remember giving you a coat that day as it was a cold day and the children, Franco, Gina and Brunna so young at the time.

May God bless you all with many happy memories.

*Love, Thoughts and Prayers,
Marie Zanicchi*
