“ Donald,
I love the memories of our childhood, all the family outings and us getting into mischief . One of my craziest memory was when we were young children walking along the creek by your home in Mt. Marion. We found a lattice fence hanging from the edge of the cliff down to the water. We thought it would make a nice ladder to the top. You made your way up the ladder from the creek to top of the cliff, then it was my turn. Unfortunately I lost my footing or the lattice broke, in any case I laid dangling by my one foot, looking down at the creek below me. I'm not sure how far up I was, but it seemed like 100 feet. You ran home got your father and rescued me. You were my hero. We had some wonderful times!

Although you have move on from your earthy state (way too soon), I find comfort in knowing that you are with us in your spirit, keeping an eye on all those you love.

Love you always and see you again on the other side.....

*Love,
Your Cuz Gertrude*
