“ My sincerest condolences to the Montano family. I will always be grateful for Mr. Montano's kindness at the time of my father's passing. With his help, my mother was able to find housing and employment and start her new life as a single parent. My life was significantly impacted in a positive way because of his generosity.

“ Ed was a fantastic man & I am so pleased that I was given the opportunity to share his last few years with him & his wonderful family. I remember when I first met him & how I would have to run to keep up with him as he traveled the hallway on the unit. Even as his Dementia progressed he would always have a smile on his face when anyone spoke to him & how he loved to eat! He will always have a special place in our hearts.

“ When I met your Dad he was the friendliest fellow walking around The Pines. Unfortunately I didn't get to know the man that people are describing but I know that he must have been something special to have raised such a loving family as yours. Sending love at this sad time in your lives.

To the Montano family. We are so sorry for your loss. Your father was such a kind man. I went to the shoe store often and always asked for him. Even if he wasn't your salesman, he always made sure he did the final shoe fitting check. May he rest in peace. Love, the Valenchis family.
