“ Dear Trinda, It's been a long time since I've seen you and Ernie. Harry and I met both of you many many years ago. We used to go to Lebanon with you and had so much fun. Ernie was a lot of fun to be around. He was a great person and will be missed. We're sorry for your loss.

“ I worked for years with Ernie and found him to be a good man. Yes he was a funny man when he let his hair down. This world has all types of people. And then there was Ernie. He was a very unique person and knew what he had to do to make people happy. I will miss him, although, we haven't talked recently though living out of state, I often thought of him. I knew that he was a good father to his "girls" and we often compared notes to our "girls". God Bless you all. And know that we wish you all peace knowing that he is in good hands now. Love to all the family. Larry and Allison
