“ Many years have passed since last we saw each other. Time and circumstances saw our parting ways.
I have memories of a women who personified a great heart and a loving magic. She gave me a roof over my head and her unending friendship. At a time in my life when I was truly trying to find myself and my place in life.
Our laughter rung true, I remember how we would sit on her living room floor, drink wine, smoking pot and listening to some of her extensive 45 collection of records, all music I still love till this day thanks to her.
I am glad you have peace Janet, you touched so many lives, and always found time for everyone.
You will be missed dear friend and thanks for the memories.

“ Janet will always be a part of who I am..She was an amazingly strong person who loved her family and all they were to her. She could make you laugh louder then you knew you could, cry the biggest tears when she was truly so sad, love you no matter what faults you had, except a friendship extended to her...Her witty mind was the first one to cross the finish line. As I take this time to truly Honor all Janet meant to me as a friend, this are not enough days in my life left if I told a story a day about how she would share herself with me!! Funny, Smart, Loving, Caring, Kind, Crazy Fun, Silly, Great Story Teller, forever grateful for your ❤️ Love.💕🙏 I will always cherish our friendship & the last time you were at our home for that day remains a permanent sweet memory for myself & our family that very special day that we were as if time stood still, Donna, Mom, Gina, Bird & myself talk about that day and laugh just as hard as we did that day and sooooooo many days before that. I love you Janet.....

“ Heaven gained another Angel. God Bless her sweet, sweet & fun loving soul. We loved seeing her bright smile when our church went to The Pines for the annual Christmas Nativity pageant. So many laughs when u was you with my mom & aunt Anita, when she was married to Charlie. I am sad in my heart but so happy & full of joy knowing she is with our Lord and so many in heaven celebrating her life.

“ Janet was so marvellous to us kids. This is my favorite memory of her. In the summer as a child we all collected somehow at the Curry house at dusk, hoping and begging for Janet to come outside and spend a few minutes with us kids, for "the ritual". Little Stevie Freleigh, The Congo boy, a Kelly kid, Mikie Du Vernoy, Debbie, Georgie, Donald, some other kid? Catching lightning bugs, getting bit by mosquitos, making kids noise, until Janet came out of the house, with the big blanket and a "flashlight". We'd all gather under the blanket , or at least try to. Janet would hold up the flashlight to her chin, just to illuminate her face (for special scare effects), and the ghost story's would begin. It was like a scene from the "Little Rascals" movies, how she told us wild tales, that made us terrified and shake, and laugh, and giggle, then she'd bring the story to a climax of fear, and yell, 'BOO", turn out the light and shake the blanket. Our poor little hearts beat like a chased chicken and as we all ran home in the dark as fast as our little legs could take us, thinking we couldn't wait till the next time Janet played with us again. God created a special person when he gave us Janet, she touched so many people forever in so many ways in her life on earth. She forever touched me.

I didn't know Janet years ago, actually met her at The Pines in Catskill. My dad was also a resident there and she was always participating in selling raffle tickets for one thing or another. Always friendly and smiling I'm sure she will be missed by many of the people who worked there and the friends she made there. R.I.P. Janet you were a wonderful person.
