“ Jerry was an old school, straight shooter and stand up guy. He reminded me in many ways of my own father who passed. Starting out in the business, he always offered his knowledge and advise in any way he could. I still carry the lucky wallet he sent me a few years back for the holidays and will miss our breakfasts together when he would come down to south Florida. My deepest condolences go out to his family and friends for their loss. Rest In Peace Jerry.

“ Jerry was a unique larger than life gracious individual like no other. Although I only personal saw him a few times he did talk several times. I was always amazed on how he would share his business experience and knowledge to help me become a better entrepreneur. I will miss him and will cherish those memories for ever. His Vegas Friend
