“ To the Family of Joseph

We are very saddened to hear about the passing of Joseph. The loss of a loved one, be it a child, grandchild, spouse, parent, grandparent, great grandparent, relative, neighbor or friend, is always exceedingly difficult.

There are few words, if any, that can express thoughts and feelings adequately.

May you take comfort, however, in knowing that people do care and do wish to express condolences. Further, may you have the necessary strength to get you through this most difficult time; also, the necessary patience to persevere.

Please know that we are making a donation to the Memorial Fund in Joseph's name, as requested.

Sincere sympathy,

The Patrick Buonfiglio Family

“ Maria, Choep, Miranda, Domonic, Saydre, Angela, Michael, Mariah, Billy and extended sasso family, I know you feel so much anger right now and your questions are why Joe. You need to know God did not take Joe to hurt you intentionally because he truly loves you it is because he needed a special angel and Joe is the only one to full fill his needs. I promise we will be with Joe again but untill we are, know that he is with all your loved ones that are also with him and he will make your path to where he is smoother. God bless you all and if there was any chance to bring you back Joe I would trade spaces with him in a blink of the eye. you's all gave him such a great love and he returned it as he knew how to do. He is at peace and will never ever hurt only love from our Savior. I hope soon i can be the first to be with him and Annie and tell them what shining stars they are in everyone's heart that they touched their lives. God Bless I love you's all immensely
