“ My Aunt Loretta was always so welcoming to me as her niece...Janus and I were two peas in a pod" as kids and my Aunt Loretta supported that with her own particular sense of "pranks" but also always looked out for me. My deepest love and support for the family and wishing Aunt Loretta safe travels to her husband, Uncle Walter, and her awaiting family in heaven.

“ I met Loretta as the parent of my high school friend, Janice. She was one of the spunky "moms" who always spoke her mind. Often embarrassing Janice. I thought it was awesome! Later in life through life's ups and downs, Loretta and I became friends. We would often pray with and for each other. We would share life's joys and sadness. She was one of the fieriest people I know. Heaven has gained a wonderful soul, who loved Jesus with her whole heart. She is home. I miss you Loretta, but I will see you when it's my time.
