March 22, 1943 - January 26, 2023

Saugerties - Mary-Kathryn Poletto, a long-time resident of Saugerties, New York, died peacefully, surrounded by family, at ArchCare at Ferncliff nursing home in Rhinebeck, New York, on January 26, 2023.

Born on March 22, 1943, in St. John, New Brunswick, Canada, Mary-Kathryn – known as Kathie – was a daughter of the late Edward Victor Moran and Kathryn (Williams) Moran.

Kathie is survived by her husband of 55 years, John Poletto of Saugerties; her daughters and sons-in-law, Valentina Poletto and Josh London of Madison, New Jersey; Heidi Poletto and Douglas Fleming of Rhinebeck, New York; Anita and Greg Montano of Chappaqua, New York; her nine beloved grandchildren; and her brother, William L. Moran, Sr., of Poughkeepsie, New York. She was predeceased by her sister, Edith Sooy, of Dover, Massachusetts.

At age six, Kathie moved with her family from Canada to Brooklyn, and then to Hudson, New York. She graduated from St. Mary's Academy in Hudson, and attended the College of St. Rose, in Albany, New York. She and John were married in 1967 in Hudson, New York, later moving to Saugerties, where together they raised their three children. Kathie was a dedicated wife and mother, a devoted daughter, a loving sister, aunt and grandmother. She was a wonderful cook, whose recipes are shared and treasured. Kathie connected with people easily and was appreciated for her warm personality, kindheartedness, quick wit and sense of humor. She loved to share a good joke – but loved hearing one even more. She will be greatly missed.

“ I knew Mrs Poletto and her husband John from 1999 to 2002, and was a guest in her home many times. She was a lovely, sweet and kind person. Always made me feel welcomed and included. She loved a good giggle and we shared many together. I am so saddened to learn of her passing. There is a special place in heaven for such a sweet soul like her. My deepest condolences to the entire Poletto family.
