Terry, and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Mickie was a friend and a client of my salon for over twenty years, When she told me her given name was actually Michaeline many years ago, I always addressed her that way.....such a pretty name. And such a beautiful soul, one we all looked forward to seeing every week. Always smiling, friendly, and pleasant. She loved her family so much. I was actually in Kingston last Wednesday, and drove past her house, thinking one day when I had time I would knock on her door and surprise her by saying hello:) And sadly today I read that she passed that same day. Rest in peace, dear Michaeline. ❤️

*“ Aunt Mickie was our aunt through marriage to our Mom's youngest brother John Porto. She was a sweet, good natured, generous person who didn't say an unkind word about anyone. She honored us with her presence at every family gathering she was invited to. We'll miss your weekly phone calls to let us in on family news and Glasco happenings. Rest in Peace Aunt Mickie!
Love, Roseann, Lisa, Marilyn & Michael*
