“ When our Lord calls our loved ones home he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. Msg. "Father" Charles held a wonderful connection to our past. I am the daughter of Marion and Charles Biada. I always remember Fr. Charles visiting our home in Staten Island with as many alter boys as he could fit in his car. He was a truly gracious individual who made life much more pleasant for everyone around him. My mother saved all his letters and photos over the years and they now have a special place in our Biada Family album. Please accept our sincere condolences from the Biada and Gattullo Families.
