“ I had the good fortune to know Ron both as a student and later in the workforce. I always looked forward to seeing him at reunions. Will never forget his demos on the parallel bars at high school assemblies. His face would turn beet red from the strain. My condolences to the family.

“ Since I don't do it well, I always admired Ron's ability to keep calm under fire. Ron was always good friend although as of late I saw him rarely. Ron's former wife Karen Miller and I grew up in Wilbur.

Condolences to the family. Ron will be in our prayers.

“ When Ron Dittus played football, he was the only person I ever knew who could jump up and put both legs in his pants at the same time!! He was a good halfback and could manipulate through the smallest open hole in our offensive line. And, he had a great sense of humor.
