

Rosalie "Bunnie" Scrodanus

November 2, 1935 - February 18, 2020

Saugerties – Rosalie “Bunnie” Scrodanus, 84, passed away peacefully and surrounded by love on Tuesday, February 18, 2020.

She was born at home in Manhattan, delivered into this world by her grandmother, Gusippina Ricciardi’s, gentle hands. Her favorite, Uncle Benny, took to the radio that morning and announced to the city, “My sister, Eleanor just had a beautiful baby girl and she looks just like a Bunnie”! Bunnie was born to Eleanor and John Cecala on November 2, 1935.

She spent several summers with her family as borders of Triola’s Farm in Glasco, until the family moved to Overbaugh Street in 1946.

After graduating from St.Ursula’s Academy in Kingston in 1953, she worked at Metropolitan Life in Kingston for several years as a Team Manager.

She left work when she married in 1963, raised her children and returned to work as the office manager for Thomas P. Martin, CPA.

She was an avid Yankee fan, she would boast how she slept through her 8th grade English regents because Uncle Benny took her to a double header the night before.

For all that knew her, over a cup of coffee or a Manhattan, she was a “Sage of Life” with candid humor and steadfast convictions. She had an infectious laugh that complimented the twinkle in her green eyes. She will be remembered by all that knew her as Grandma Bun, with love and affection.

She was a devoted daughter, sister, mother, aunt and friend.

She was pre-deceased by her parents, her devoted Aunt Mary Campanella and many other uncles, aunts and cousins

Survived by her sister, Josephine and her favorite brother-in-law Dominick Bongiorno of Saugerties; her son Charles “Chuck” and his wife Robin Scrodanus of Altamont, NY; her daughter Dr. Christine M. Scrodanus, OD of Saugerties; her nephews, Joseph Bongiorno of Woodstock and John Bongiorno of Saugerties; and her God-daughters, Michele Fabiano Pedersen of Glasco, and Pietrina Bulich-Clarke of South Carolina.

A funeral procession will form 9:15 AM Saturday, February 22, 2020 at Buono Funeral Service, Inc., Main Street Chapel, Saugerties, NY and then proceed to St. Joseph’s RC Church in Glasco where a 10:00 AM a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. “ Now I know how you got the name "Bunnie"!!

Was just talking about this with Christine.

What a beautiful remembrance of you my cousin, my only regret is that I did not get to come visit you, deeply sorry for that . Going to miss you terribly although we didn't see each other often, I always always thought of you.

Going to miss that voice of yours and your laugh for sure, it was infectious. And your famous saying " grow some balls "

You are now with all the other family that has passed, Uncle John and Aunt Eleanor, Lucy and Ricky Ricardo as I would always think to myself. What a hysterical pair they were ❤️

Say hello to Mom and Dad for me, miss them so...

Rest in peace now, always in my heart ❤️

Love cousins, Linda (Cecala) Nicky, and Marissa Lucca
