“ We have just recently gotten to know Terry. My daughter Ava and I came there to view his home for purchase and hours later we left as new friends. We would talk for hours and his stories were the best! ESP Iceland lol - we are truly heartbroken to hear about his passing. Our last call was such a silly and fun call not knowing I would never hear from him again. He was truly a special soul. He is missed and still thought of daily. Rest with Angels Terry ❤️

“ Terry was a lifelong friend. We went to high school together and remained buddies for almost 60 years. Terry was a great athlete and excelled in football, track and wrestling. What was noteworthy was the joy Terry exuded while playing sports. He loved the activity, camaraderie and competition. We had many adventures together and an equal number of misadventures. No matter what we did, we had fun! He was my brother and I will miss him.

“ I have known Terry for most of my life as the daughter of Fern and Roger Kaelber. We have had so many memorable times with Terry, most recently lunch where he was excited to move to a new home in Woodstock. Sadly he will not realize that dream but I hope he will rest in peace knowing that all who cared about and loved him will miss him sorely.....
